Forecast for Thursday 10 Jun 2021

Weather: Dry with clear spells, with rather more cloud towards the Perthshire hills and the Ochils with perhaps a little drizzle. Cloud and patchy drizzle in southwest son clearing to leave a bright day with some good spells of sunshine developing and, while most places remain dry, an isolated afternoon shower is possible.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Around 25% in the west and southwest at first, otherwise around 90%.

Visibility: Periods of cloud above about 450-600m in the southwest at first, otherwise only small amounts of cloud expected below the summits. Away from cloud visibility very good, perhaps briefly reducing in any showers and just a few kilometres in any drizzle.
